A S S O C I A T E S

I was contacted by Cani Consultancy and found the information and advice I received very clear and helpful. It seemed a good time to review our existing business mobile package which, at times, got very frustrating and confusing, with our previous network provider proving to be extremely unhelpful and difficult to get hold of. I liked the idea of a 'one-stop shop'. We switched to a new network, got free handsets as part of this new package and the remaining buyout fee from the old contract was reimbursed to us. Overall, the switchover went pretty smoothly and I have found Cani to be helpful, especially with their quarterly analysis of our usage.
